

Newsflash 2012.03

DATE: 29 January 2013

It is with profound regret that we learned that retired member, Professor Alan Lipman passed away peacefully at his home in Johannesburg this past Sunday, 27 January 2013. Please click here for the comprehensive obituary.

The President and Board of Representatives and members of SAIA staff offer our sincere condolences to his family; his wife Beata, his children Jane and Peter, and grandchildren Martha, Caitlin and Joshua; and to his friends.

Prof Lipman was awarded the SAIA Medal of Distinction in 2004 (please click here for full citation) to acknowledge his signature enthusiasm for architecture, which has, through his writing, created a debate in which the public at large as well as the profession are participants. He was a public spokesman for thoughtful architecture at a time when a new endorsement of the worth of architecture was needed, as the conscience of post apartheid architects; thereby earning the respect of those that knew him and his work.

A celebration of Prof Lipman's life will be held this coming Sunday 3 February from 12h00-15h00 at 45 Tenth Avenue, Parktown North.
